Om Birla vs K. Suresh: Lok Sabha set for first Speaker election in decades

NDA has 293 MPs while INDIA bloc has 233

New Delhi, Jun 25 : The Lok Sabha will witness a rare election for the Speaker's post - the first since 1976 - as Congress member Kodikunnil Suresh has been made the opposition candidate against NDA nominee Om Birla.

Congress leader Rahul Gandhi said Defence Minister Rajnath Singh failed to give an assurance on the opposition party's claim to the Deputy Speaker's post.

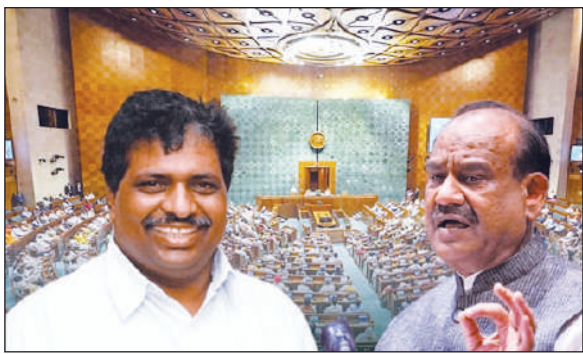

While elections to the Speaker's post were common before Independence, the position of the presiding officer of the Lok Sabha has witnessed contests only thrice in Independent India - in 1952, 1967 and 1976.

In 1952, Congress

member G V Mavalankar was elected as the Lok Sabha Speaker. Mavalankar polled 394 votes against opponent Shantaram More, who managed to garner 55 votes.

In 1967, Tenneti Viswanatham contested the election for Lok Sabha Speaker against Congress nominee Neelam Sanjeeva Reddy. Reddy was elected as the Speaker having polled 278 votes against Viswanatham's 207.

In the fifth Lok Sabha, the duration of the fifth session was extended by an year following the imposition of Emergency by the then Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in 1975. The then Speaker G S Dhillon had resigned on December 1, 1975.

Congress leader Baliram Bhagat was elected the Lok Sabha Speaker on January 5, 1976. Gandhi had moved the motion to elect Bhagat as the Speaker of the Lok Sabha, while Prasannabhai Mehta of the Congress (O) had moved the motion to elect Jana Sangh leader Jagannathrao Joshi to the post. Bhagat polled 344 votes against Joshi's 58.

In 1998, the then Congress leader Sharad Pawar had moved a motion to elect P A Sangma as the Speaker, which was negated. After the rejection of Pawar's motion, the then Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee moved a motion to choose TDP member G M C Balayogi as the Lok Sabha Speaker. The

BJP gets 4-MP boost from Southern Party

New Delhi, June 25 : Ex-Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Jagan Mohan Reddy's YSR Congress Party will support BJP MP Om Birla in Wednesday's election for the Lok Sabha Speaker's post.

The YSRCP - thumped by arch-rivals TDP in the general election - has only four MPs in the Lower House. The party swept the southern state in the 2019 poll, winning 22 of 25 seats, but a repeat this year proved impossible; Chandrababu Naidu's TDP, which also won the Assembly election, picked up 16 seats and its allies - the BJP and actor Pawan Kalyan's Jana Sena Party - won five between them.

motion moved by Vajpayee was adopted.

Since Independence, only M A Ayyangar, G S Dhillon, Balram Jakhar and G M C Balayogi have retained the coveted posts in the subsequent Lok Sabhas.

Jakhar was the Speaker of the seventh and the eighth Lok Sabhas and holds the distinction of being the only presiding officer to complete two full terms.

Balayogi was chosen as the Speaker of the 12th Lok Sabha, which had a tenure of 19 months. He was also chosen as the Speaker of the 13th Lok Sabha on October 22, 1999, till his death in a chopper crash on March 3, 2002.

Mail News Service

Jamshedpur, June 25: The Surya Mandir Committee halted the work initiated by MLA Saryu Roy, funded through his legislative resources, in the Shankh Maidan near Sidhgora Surya Mandir in Jamshedpur. The committee closed the gate and refused to allow materials to enter, forcing the administrative team to return empty-handed. A significant uproar ensued as committee members and local residents opposed the actions of the administration, labeling it as anti-temple. The Surya Mandir Committee stated that a Yagna was already

They accused MLA Saryu Roy of attempting to install additional conches and chairs under the guise of beautification for political gain, which they argued would disrupt future events. On Monday, the JNAC team, accompanied by a magistrate and police force, arrived to commence the work, only to be met with strong resistance from the temple committee members. Notable BJP leaders and committee members, including Bhupendra Singh, Pawan Agarwal, former Khadi Board member Kulwant Singh Bunty, former BJP president

Recollecting Emergency Phase

It is strange that the Congress has its reservations on observing the recollections of Emergency especially when the party has stated that its prime objective is to uphold the values of the Constitution which they did on the first day of the new parliamentary session by holding aloft the copies of the Constitution and swaying them like flags. Congress leader Rahul Gandhi did the same thing during his general election rallies. If the Congress and its allies are so committed to saving the Constitution, why does it have reservations on observing the anniversary of the imposition of Emergency? Is it because it was Indira Gandhi who imposed Emergency on the nation? The imposition of Emergency not only vilified the democratic concept but also converted the entire country into an imprisonment camp.

If the opposition parties, especially the Congress, have even an iota of respect for the Constitution, they should, instead of 'flagging' the Constitution in Parliament, criticize the upholders of Emergency and the black phase that followed. The Congress should show its courage and point accusing fingers at its leaders who ushered in Emergency. If it cannot do so, it should also avoid criticizing those who fought against the Emergency. Congress President Kharge believes that instead of recollecting the Emergency period, the central government should turn its attention towards current issues. But the point is cannot both aspects of recollecting Emergency and looking into current affairs be executed simultaneously? Should not the mistakes of the past be remembered? Those who forget or overlook the mistakes of the past are bound to commit the same errors. It does not make sense to contend that the Emergency period should not be recounted as it is nearly fifty years since its imposition.

This, according to the Congress, is as good as believing that Indians should not think, speak of or recollect the partition of India. If the Congress and its allies are of the belief that holding aloft the Constitution and swaying it like a flag would wash out the recollection of Emergency, they are living in a fool's paradise. It is impossible to forget the ruthlessness unleashed on the opposition parties, the media and on the citizens' rights; the tampering of the Constitution and threats to the judiciary. It would be better that the Congress and other opposition parties, instead of 'flagging' the constitution on the floor of Parliament, should turn the pages of this Constitution and go through those contents to find out for themselves how attempts were made to tamper with its contents. It is nothing but an irony at best to believe that the Congress is hell-bent on saving the Constitution on the one hand and blaming Narendra Modi of unconstitutionally taking on the Prime Minister's mantle in gross violation of people's verdict..

From election to performance -- Understanding the role of Speaker in the Lok Sabha

With the 18th Lok Sabha holding its inaugural session from June 24 to July 3, the House is likely to elect its new Speaker on June 26.

Meanwhile, Bharatiya Janata Party MP Bhartruhari Mahtab has been appointed the 'pro-tem Speaker' of the Lok Sabha. President Droupadi Murmu administered the oath of office to him in the presence of all the newly-elected members of the Lower House.

Mahtab will serve as the 'pro-tem Speaker' till June 26, when the new Speaker will be elected.

The rules for electing the Speaker are laid down in Article 93 of the Constitution. All the members of the Lok Sabha will choose the Speaker by casting their votes in a secret ballot.

The Speaker is elected by a majority, which means more than half of the members present in the House have to vote for a candidate to become the Speaker.

Since Independence, all the Lok Sabha Speakers have been elected unopposed.

The election of the Deputy Speaker also follows the same rules, except the date is fixed by the newly-elected Speaker.

The Deputy Speaker's post has been retained by the Opposition since 1991. However, this time, it might go to one of the BJP-led NDA allies, the TDP or the JD(U).

Role of the Speaker:

* Represents the authority of the entire Lok Sabha while ensuring that it operates as per the rules of the Parliament and democracy.

* Presides over the sessions, maintaining discipline and decorum, deciding who speaks, and the order of proceedings.

* Maintains orderly conduct and discipline by applying the rules of the procedure of the Lok Sabha.

* Has the power to discipline (imposing penalties or sanctions or sometimes removing from the position) members of the House over inappropriate behaviour.

* Ensures fair participation in the House proceedings and protects the rights of the members.

* Participates in discussions but only votes if there is a tie.

* Adjourns or suspends the meeting if enough MPs are not present.

* Verifies important bills and handles joint meetings between the upper and the lower houses of the Parliament.

* Licenses Money Bills and can make decisions on other finance-related bills.

* Must be transparent and fair, regardless of their political party.

Election statistics put BJP in advantageous position at Bagda in Bengal bypolls

Kolkata, June 24 (IANS) If the statistics of the last two major elections are of any significance, BJP is in an advantageous position in the forthcoming bypoll for Bagda Assembly constituency in West Bengal scheduled on July 10.

The bypoll at Bagda, in North 24 Parganas District, one of the seven Assembly constituencies under Bangaon Lok Sabha, is all set to be a four-cornered contest between BJP's Binay Kumar Biswas, Trinamool Congress' Madhuparna Thakur, the All India Forward Bloc's Gour Biswas and the Congress' Ashok Halder. Incidentally, Madhuparna Thakur is the niece of BJP's two-time Lok Sabha member from Bangaon and the Union Minister of State for Ports, Shipping and Waterways Shantanu Thakur. They hail from the Thakur family, which was the founding family of the Matua Mahasangha, the biggest association of the Backward Class Matua community who came as refugees to West Bengal from Bangladesh after Partition.

At Bagda, Matua voters have been the deciding factor in many elections.

Now, going by the statistics of the 2021 West Bengal Assembly elections and the recently-concluded Lok Sabha elections, the BJP candidates were comfortably ahead in Bagda.

In the 2021 Assembly polls the BJP's Biswajit Das won by a margin of 9,792 votes. Das resigned as MLA before the Lok Sabha polls this year and unsuccessfully contested as a Trinamool Congress candidate from Bangaon Lok Sabha.

In the 2024 Lok Sabha polls Das trailed from Bagda by a massive margin of 20,614 votes. So going by simple statistics the BJP is well ahead of its competitors.

However, there are two factors that the BJP will have to keep in mind for the bypoll for Bagda.

The first factor is the bloodline of the Trinamool Congress candidate. Considering the status of the Thakur family among the Matuas, Madhuparna Thakur will obviously try to take full advantage of it.

Second, in any bye-election, especially if it is for an Assembly constituency, the ruling party is always at an advantageous position unless there is a massive underlying anti-incumbency wave.

However, considering the history of poll-related violence, the Election Commission of India has decided to deploy 15 companies of the Central Armed Police Forces for Bagda, which is the maximum among all four Assembly constituencies going for polls on July 10.

Defections of BRS MLAs trigger dissidence in Congress

The joining of BRS MLA M. Sanjay Kumar into Congress has triggered differences within the ruling party in Telangana with senior leader T. Jeevan Reddy contemplating resignation from the Legislative Council.

The former minister is unhappy with Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy for admitting Sanjay Kumar, the MLA from Jagtial, into the party without even informing him. The senior leader was holding consultations with his followers on Monday to decide his future course of action.

In the November 2023 Assembly elections, Jeevan Reddy lost to Sanjay Kumar in Jagtial constituency in Nizamabad district. The Congress leader had lost to the same rival in 2018.

Sanjay Kumar, who had lost to Jeevan Reddy from the same constituency in 2014, joined the Congress party on Sunday night.

The development came as a shock to Jeevan Reddy, who had already found fault with the Chief Minister for admitting senior BRS leader and former Assembly Speaker Pocharam Srinivas Reddy into the party.

Jeevan Reddy had Saturday dubbed the entry of Srinivas Reddy, a MLA from Banswada, into the Congress party as political opportunism.

"It is an example of political opportunism. Any political party should fight and work according to its principles," Jeevan Reddy had said.

He also questioned the need for encouraging defections from other parties when the Congress government is stable with 65 MLAs.

"There is no need for the Congress party to allow defections into the party," he said.

The Chief Minister had personally visited Srinivas Reddy's house on June 21 to invite him to join the Congress party. The former minister immediately accepted the invitation and joined the party. On Sunday night, Sanjay Kumar also joined the ruling party.

He is the fifth BRS MLA to switch loyalties since Congress came to power in December last year. BRS had won 39 seats in the 119-member Assembly. Its strength has now come down to 33 as it also lost the recent S e c u n d e r a b a d Cantonment by-election to the ruling party.

Akhilesh Yadav to focus on non-Yadav OBCs for 2027 polls

Samajwadi Party (SP) President Akhilesh Yadav will make a conscious attempt to consolidate his votes among non-Yadav OBCs as part of his strategy for the 2027 UP assembly elections. The Samajwadi Party had fielded five family members from the Yadav family - Akhilesh from Kannauj, Dimple Yadav from Mainpuri, Dharmendra Yadav from Azamgarh, Akshay Yadav from Firozabad and Aditya Yadav from Budaun. All the five candidates won the Lok Sabha elections.

"Akhilesh did not field any other Yadav candidate because he wanted to remove the tag of SP being a pro-Yadav party. He gave tickets to other OBCs and the move paid rich dividends with the party winning 37 seats. He wants to continue with the strategy," said a senior party spokesman.

It is this strategy that is preventing Akhilesh Yadav from naming his uncle

Shivpal Yadav as the Leader of the Opposition in his place. Shivpal is among the senior most MLAs and enjoys acceptability in the party ranks. The SP does not have a Muslim face who can replace Akhilesh as Leader of the Opposition since Mohd Azam Khan is still in jail. The party has 32 Muslim MLAs but most of them lack the experience needed to work as the Leader of the Opposition. Party sources said that Akhilesh Yadav had already started working on candidate selection for the assembly polls and would be giving greater representation to Dalits since the party had benefitted from Dalit support in the recently concluded elections.

The party's biggest gamble paid off in Ayodhya (Faizabad) where it had fielded a Dalit leader Avadhesh Prasad who won the seat, defeating the BJP.

SP's ticketing strategy is significantly being credited for leading the INDIA bloc to a stunning victory. The party virtually swept the seats in Purvanchal where both non-Yadav OBCs and Dalits make a significant chunk of the electorate. SP also won seven reserved seats.

With Dalits also now ruling out the BSP as an option, a large segment of the community rallied behind the INDIA bloc. "Why should we waste our vote?" was the refrain among a lot of Dalits on the ground when asked about whether they would prefer the BSP. The result was that the BSP's vote share was reduced to a dismal two per cent and the INDIA bloc seems.

Kerala CM Pinarayi Vijayan on his way out!

Dr. Duggaraju Srinivasa Rao

The buzz in Kerala is when is the change of CM happening? Till the 2024 Lok Sabha election results are out Pinarayi Vijayan, the strong man of CPM, is credited with the back to back assembly elections eulogized as man who captured the rural Kerala in the local body elections for the communists.

In that backdrop the LDF was so confident of capturing majority of Lok Sabha seats, but it ended with only one seat, the same number the BJP also one. It is not only the loss of Left which has hit Pinarayi but the more damage to his image was hit by the emphatic victory of BJP in Thrissur, but its overwhelming positive performance across the state with around 16% vote share. With his plan of marginalizing some of the tested CPM leaders in the decision making, over preference of his son in law and his ministerial colleague Mohammad Rias and his daughter Veena's money making through suspicious activities, and his back door negotiations with the BJP government at Delhi to tide over the central investigating agencies progress in the involvement of people close to his family made him a sitting duck in the state level review meet of CPM. The style of functioning of Pinarayi was questioned in that meet, where the national general secretary of the party Seetaram Yechuri was present. Pinarayi was accused by the CPM seniors of abrasive behavior, rabid tongue, chiding the cadre in public for minor mistakes and brining the family into the party, which is unheard in communist parties earlier, his autocratic way of decision making and many more.

Till recently Pinarayi's word was final in the party and government but post results he is loner. Pinarayi failed to convince the party through his "election results are not anti-incumbency expression of voter" and "BJP mislead the voter through its nationalist narrative". Perhaps the politburo of the CPM has also not bought Pinarayi line and chose to side with the other leaders. There could be more than one angle for that central leadership conclusion. CPM is a party which believes that politburo is supreme and that was evident when Jyoti Basu, then CM of Bengal, was not allowed to take the PM post in late 1990s, despite the political coalition choosing him as prospective PM. After the loss of Bengal and Tripura, the only red citadel left to the Left is Kerala. That being the only state from where party coffers are getting filled, naturally the leader heading Kerala was given flexibility to act devoid of consultation with the party. In fact there were many reports emanating from A.K. Gopalan Bhavan regarding the unhappy politburo and its compelled restraint on Pinarayi. The politburo waiting for a chance to tackle Pinarayi and that chance came after 8 years of his reign in 2024. The latest word from politburo is "Pinarayi can't act independently and party consultation, an old method, is to be followed" - in a way fettering him.

As Pinarayi is at his political low he may have to willingly bear the shackles but accepting subjugation is not the character of him. He may wait for his opportunity to strike back but given the political climate in Kerala that time may not come that early. Pinarayi antagonized many numerically powerful communities. Through his 'appease Muslim' policy he angered both Hindu and Christian communities. The dissident CPM group accused Pinarayi of practice of 'pseudo-secularism' which gave BJP a foothold in Kerala. The Nair and Ezhava communities have shifted to BJP. The Christian clergy lead by Metropolitan of Syro Catholics through a jibe of 'kit politics' at Left and Pinarayi accused the Church heads as "uneducated and uninformed" and that was not taken lightly by Church goers.

The political outfit of Muslims, the IUML, accused Pinarayi of following "double edged tactics". IUML suspect that Pinarayi tried to divide the Muslim society by encouraging another Ulama group against Muslim League.

With so much negativism built for the party, Pinarayi Vijayan now is considered as a burden and he may be tolerated till the Wayanadu Lok Sabha and two other assembly by elections seats in the coming months. Irrespective of the outcome of those by-elections Pinarayi is sure to be eased out by CPM as they fear loosing the last red bastion as Communist Party gears up its centenary celebration.

Mumbai, June 25 (IANS)

JSW Steel USA, a subsidiary of India's leading steel company, on Tuesday said it plans to invest $110 million in steel projects in the state of Texas.

The company said this investment will enable the production of high-quality monopile steel plates to support the Joe Biden administration's new actions to expand offshore wind energy by deploying 30 gigawatts (GW) of offshore wind by 2030, enough to power 10 million homes with clean energy. Indian pharma formulations sector to more than double to Rs 5.5 trn by 2034: Report

New Delhi, June 25 (IANS) India's Domestic Pharma Formulations (DomForm) market, which includes branded generic medicines, is expected to more than double and cross Rs 5.5 trillion in the next 10 years at a CAGR of 10 per cent, according to a new report.

The report, by investment banking firm Avendus Capital, showed that currently the market is valued at Rs 2 trillion, with a growth rate of 11 per cent over the last 20 years. However, with a gradual transition from a primarily doctor-branded prescription model, more stringent quality compliance, and government policies and regulatory measures, the market is expected to make a significant growth.

"We are encouraged by the government of India's Pharma Vision 2047, which is aimed at making medicines more equitable, accessible, and affordable while ensuring high quality and more sustainable manufacturing practices. We believe that the sector will more than double from today, comfortably crossing about Rs 5.5 trillion in value by 2034," the report said.

The report also predicted shifts in channel volumes, with trade generics and the unbranded "Generic Generics", including Jan Aushadhi centres and government hospital procurement, gaining more traction. "We estimate that the DomForm market will continue growing at 9-10 per cent CAGR in the next 10 years. With the expansion of trade generics and Jan Aushadhi channels, we expect about 30 per cent volume contribution from these in 10 years," the report said.

Although off-patent generics currently account for nearly 100 per cent of the market, because of local manufacturing and process innovations, the prices of medicines are significantly lower than the global average.

Currently, more than 3,000 companies and almost 10,000 manufacturing units exist, yet they come with significant variations in quality standards.

77 pc of Indian firms witness surge in frauds due to Covid-19 pandemic: Report

New Delhi, June 25 (IANS)

About 50 per cent of Indian organisations encountered one or more fraud incidents during and after the pandemic, with a substantial majority (77 per cent) perceiving a noticeable increase in fraudulent activities due to the Covid-19 pandemic, a new report revealed on Tuesday. According to the consulting firm Grant Thornton Bharat, nearly half attributed this rise in fraudulent activities to the shift from onsite to remote work environments and the subsequent lack of stringent internal controls. Specifically, cyber incidents accounted for 64 per cent of these frauds, underscoring businesses' critical vulnerabilities as they navigate increasingly digital landscapes.

"Our survey highlights the growing awareness among organisations regarding fraud prevention, with 60 per cent of companies now prioritising cybersecurity and anti-fraud technologies on their strategic agenda," said Samir Paranjpe, Partner, Grant Thornton Bharat.

The report surveyed over 250 CXO respondents from a wide spectrum of sectors, representing different roles and responsibilities, including business and strategy, finance, information technology, risk and compliance, and legal.

Moreover, the report revealed that one-fourth of the organisations have suffered losses of Rs 1 crore and above, with three-fourths of such organisations facing financial damages exceeding Rs 5 crore. The most affected industries include Technology, Media and Telecommunications (58 per cent), financial services (51 per cent), and manufacturing (46 per cent), highlighting the critical need for tailored anti-fraud strategies to address their unique vulnerabilities.

Further, the report said that post-COVID-19, 73 per cent of organisations have improved their governance and compliance frameworks, 63 per cent have implemented enhanced awareness training for employees, third parties, and customers, and 62 per cent are conducting continuous control assessments of high-risk areas at regular intervals.

Obesity, smoking key triggers for Alzheimer's Disease, say experts

New Delhi, June 25 (IANS) Obesity and smoking are key triggers for Alzheimer's Disease, said health experts on Monday, stressing the need to control both, especially in young adults. Alzheimer's is a progressive neurodegenerative disorder, which is a serious public health concern. It leads to memory loss, cognitive decline, and inability to perform daily tasks. The experts explained that obesity and smoking are the major risk factors for vascular dementia and can trigger Alzheimer's owing to the inflammation caused due to smoking.

"Smoking damages blood vessels, reducing blood flow to the brain, which can harm brain cells. Obesity is linked to inflammation and insulin resistance, both detrimental to brain health," Dr. Vikas Mittal, Pulmonologist at the CK Birla Hospital, Delhi, told IANS. Curbing the major risk factors are important as a recent study published in the journal The Lancet showed that global dementia cases are set to triple, with 153 million living with dementia by 2050. Alzheimer's, the most common cause of dementia, accounting for 60 to 80 per cent of cases, is also expected to soar. "Obesity also causes conditions like diabetes and cardiac disease which are known risk factors for Alzheimer's. The presence of these conditions worsens brain health while promoting inflammation, oxidative stress, and vascular damage, which leads to memory decline and increase in Alzheimer's Disease," Dr. Anurag Saxena, HOD and Cluster Head Neurosurgery, Manipal Hospital Dwarka, told IANS. Additionally, obesity impairs metabolic functions and insulin signalling which increases the risk of neurodegeneration. On the other hand, "smoking worsens oxidative stress and inflammation in the brain which increases the development of Alzheimer's. "The harmful chemicals in cigarettes like nicotine and tar damage blood vessels and interfere with blood flow. Smoking can not only accelerate Alzheimer's Disease but also other forms of dementia," Dr. Anurag said. Moreover, people with a family history of Alzheimer's are more prone to the condition if they smoke. The combination and genetic factors and the effects of smoking increases the progress of Alzheimer's symptoms, the doctor noted. Dr. Shailesh Rohatgi, HOD, Department of Neurology, DPU Super Speciality Hospital at Pune, told IANS that he advised maintaining a balanced lifestyle and eating habits and keeping a constant check, as vascular dementia can even develop at an early age due to various lifestyle habits. He also stressed on "daily activities which are not just limited to physical movement but also engaging the brain. It is important to engage your brain in mental activities like board games."

Over 8 in 10 Indian professionals plan to invest in upskilling in FY25: Report

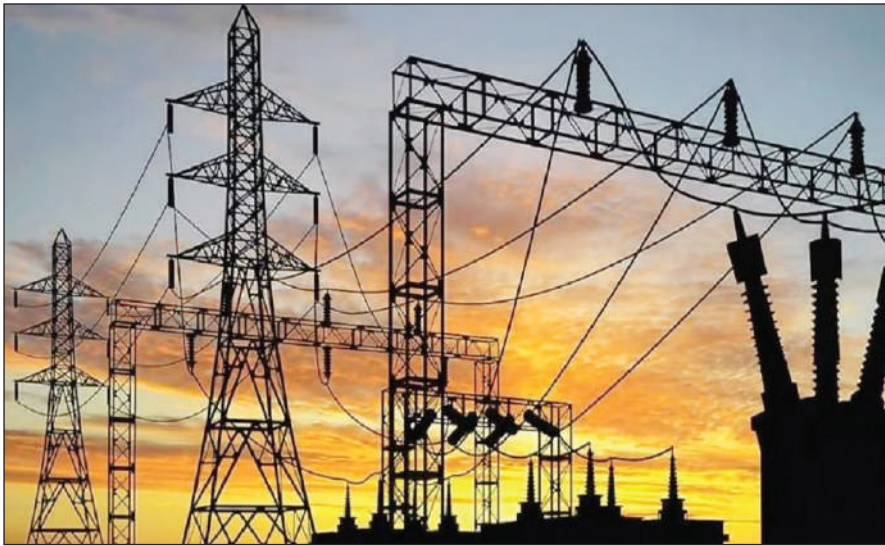

New Delhi, June 24 (IANS) Over 8 in 10 (85 per cent) Indian professionals are planning to invest in upskilling in FY25, a new report showed on Monday. According to global ed-tech company Great Learning, the purpose of upskilling among freshers has grown by 8 percentage points, standing at 83 per cent this year as compared to 75 per cent in FY24. Among key sectors, the intent to upskill in FY25 was highest among professionals from manufacturing, engineering, capital goods, and BFSI. "To stay competitive in this dynamic environment, continuous learning and upskilling are crucial to adapt and evolve. It is encouraging to see professionals adopting a proactive approach to navigate this disruption by acquiring specialised skills to meet evolving employer demands," said Hari Krishnan Nair, Co-Founder, Great Learning.

The report surveyed over 1,000 professionals to unearth key trends and factors influencing the upskilling preferences of Indian professionals in the coming year. About 79 per cent of professionals highlighted upskilling as necessary for future-proofing their careers in FY25. Bengaluru and Chennai have displayed the highest intent to upskill this year compared to other metros in India, the report mentioned.

New AI model to help prevent power outages

New Delhi, June 25 (IANS) A team of US researchers has developed an artificial intelligence (AI) model that could help electrical grids prevent power outages by automatically rerouting electricity in milliseconds. The automated system, published online in the journal Nature Communications, is an early example of "self-healing grid" technology, which uses AI to detect and repair problems such as outages and storm-damaged power lines on its own without human intervention. Researchers from the University of Texas at Dallas demonstrated that their solution can automatically identify alternative routes to transfer electricity to users before an outage occurs. It is because AI has the advantage of speed, the team said. Unlike human-controlled processes that can take minutes to hours, the system can automatically reroute electrical flow in microseconds. "Our goal is to find the optimal path to send power to the majority of users as quickly as possible," said Dr. Jie Zhang, associate professor of mechanical engineering at the Erik Jonsson School of Engineering and Computer Science. "But more research is needed before this system can be implemented." Roshni Anna Jacob, an electrical engineering doctoral student at the varsity, said that electricity blocked due to line faults can be reconfigured using switches and power from available sources nearby, such as from large-scale solar panels or batteries. The researchers next aim to develop similar technology to repair and restore the grid after a power disruption.

Acupuncture may lower hot flashes post anti-hormonal breast cancer therapy

New Delhi, June 25 (IANS) Acupuncture may significantly reduce hot flashes and other hormonal side effects of endocrine therapy taken by women with breast cancer, claimed a study, based on a pooled analysis of three clinical trials, on Monday. Endocrine therapy helps block hormone signalling that drives some forms of breast cancer. Although a life-saving treatment, up to 80 per cent of women experience hot flashes -- a sudden, temporary sensation of body warmth, flushing, and sweating -- and other side effects after taking it, leading to discontinuation, while elevating the risk of cancer progression and death. To probe acupuncture's potential, researchers from the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, US, conducted a coordinated, multinational project consisting of three independent randomised controlled trials in the US, China, and South Korea. The analysis, published in the journal CANCER, included 158 women with stage 0-III breast cancer. These women were randomised to immediate acupuncture (IA) who received acupuncture twice a week for 10 weeks and were followed for an additional 10 weeks without acupuncture or delayed acupuncture control (DAC). DAC participants received usual care for 10 weeks, then crossed over to acupuncture with a reduced intensity (once per week) for 10 weeks. After week 10, 64 per cent of people in the IA group reported improvements in the number and severity of their hot flashes, compared with 18 per cent in the DAC group. Further, the DAC participants who received weekly acupuncture showed significant improvements in symptom scores relative to week 10. No side effects were reported by any of the participants. "By managing side effects, our approach makes it easier for patients to continue their prescribed medication, which has the potential to reduce the risk of cancer recurrence and improve long-term outcomes for breast cancer survivors," said lead author Weidong Lu, from the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. Weidong also suggested people interested in using acupuncture start with "a short trial period" and based on the results "engage in a long-term programme".

Junk food driving piles, fistula and fissures cases in young Indian adults: Doctors

Mumbai, June 25 (IANS) Regular junk food consumption and inactive lifestyles are fuelling cases of painful piles, fistula and fissures in young adults aged between 18 and 25 years, said doctors on Monday. People with piles and fissures -- common disorders concerning the anal region -- suffer from symptoms like passing bloody stools or having trouble passing stools, itchy and irritable anal cavity, inflammation, rectal bleeding, and discomfort when sitting for a long time, among others. A fistula is an unusual opening near the anus that connects to the inside of the anal canal in the colon. It typically arises due to factors like injury, surgery, infection, or inflammation of anal glands. Pain, swelling in the anal area, boils, skin irritation around the anus, bleeding, and discomfort during bowel movements are the major symptoms. "Haemorrhoids or piles happen when veins inside and outside the anus become swollen and enlarged. This condition is now seen in adults between 25-55 due to obesity, pregnancy, a diet low in fibre, constipation, diarrhoea, lifting heavy objects, and straining during bowel movements," LakinVira, General Surgeon, Apollo Spectra Mumbai, told IANS. "An anal fissure is a result of a tear in the lining of the anus or anal canal. This problem occurs because of constipation, straining during bowel movements, and ulcerative colitis," he added. Lakin said that in the past 2-3 months, approximately 50 patients have visited with complaints of piles and fistula, and for fissures, the number is higher than 80. About 60 per cent of males while 40 per cent of females suffer from fistula and piles. Whereas, 70 per cent of females and 30 per cent of males tend to have fissures. "There is overall over 10 per cent in these conditions when compared to previous years. The incidence of these conditions is recently seen in age groups of 18-25 due to junk food consumption," the doctor noted. Hemant Patel, Laparoscopic and General Surgeon, ZynovaShalby Hospital told IANS that "cases of piles, fistula and fissures are increasing in younger age groups mostly in males. There has been a significant rise in these patients in the past few years". He noted seeing 5-6 patients with such conditions daily. According to health experts, eating a balanced diet, exercising daily, preventing constipation by incorporating fibre-rich foods into meals, maintaining proper hydration by drinking sufficient water, quitting smoking and alcohol consumption, and avoiding straining during bowel movements can help ease the condition. Other ways to manage the condition include "medications, creams, and a sitz bath. If the conditions get severe then one will have to undergo a minimally invasive laparoscopic surgery," Lakin said.

Mail News Service

Jamshedpur, June 25: Dr. Ajoy Kumar, Congress Working Committee member and former Jamshedpur MP, criticized the Modi-led NDA government over the recent NEET paper leak, stating that the administration should be ashamed of the 70 incidents of question paper leaks over the past seven years. He pointed out that Prime Minister Modi has remained silent on this issue, which he termed a betrayal of the dreams of over 23 lakh students and their families. In a press release issued on Monday, Dr. Ajoy highlighted numerous examples where exams were canceled due to paper leaks, underscoring the pervasive issue of unemployment and corruption in job recruitments. On March 15, 2024, the teacher recruitment examination in Bihar, which saw 75 lakh candidates, was canceled due to a paper leak. Similarly, the UP Police examination held on February 17 and 18 for 60 lakh candidates was canceled by the Yogi government on February 24 due to the same issue. Dr. Ajoy emphasized that the arrests in states like Bihar, Gujarat, and Haryana demonstrate that corruption in examinations has been conducted systematically, making these BJP-ruled states epicenters of paper leaks. In 2023, the UP Police Constable Recruitment Exam was canceled amid paper leak allegations. The Uttar Pradesh Teacher Eligibility Test 2021 (UPTET Exam 2021) and the Odisha Staff Selection Commission (OSSC) exam were also canceled due to paper leaks. Haryana experienced multiple paper leak scams, including those involving the HPSC, HSSC, and police recruitments. Dr. Ajoy criticized the BJP government for failing to empower the country's large youth population. He noted that children wait years for job vacancies, only to face significant expenses in filling forms and taking exams, with all their hard work ultimately thwarted by corruption. He argued that BJP's corruption is weakening the nation and undermining the potential of its youth. (w/nkm)

Experts call for stricter, wider regulations on harmful artificial food colours

New Delhi, June 25 (IANS) Doctors on Tuesday called for stricter and wider regulations on harmful artificial food colours, a day after Karnataka banned their use over potential health concerns.

Karnataka's Food Safety and Standards Department on Monday passed an order imposing a fine of up to Rs 10 lakh and punishment from seven years up to life imprisonment for using artificial colours in chicken kebabs, fish, and vegetable dishes across the state.

Artificial food colourings enhance food's visual appeal and stability, which can boost consumer satisfaction. However, dyes like Sunset Yellow, Carmoisine, and Rhodamine-B pose health risks, including allergies, hyperactivity in children, and potential carcinogenic effects.

"Recent tests in Karnataka revealed hazardous levels of these dyes in kebabs, leading to public health concerns. Given these risks, there is a strong case for stricter regulations or broader bans on harmful artificial colours," Dr. Basavaraj S Kumbhar, Consultant- Internal Medicine, Aster Whitefield Hospital, Bengaluru, told IANS. "Encouraging the use of natural alternatives and increasing public awareness about the dangers of synthetic dyes can help protect consumer health and promote safer food practices," the doctor added.

Dr. Piyush Ranjan, Senior Consultant & Vice Chairman, Department of Gastroenterology, Sir Ganga Ram hospital told IANS that some synthetic colouring agents affect children and can cause aggressive behaviour in them. "Some of these agents may also be carcinogenic and thyroid cancers have been reported. Issues of allergy and asthma may also be associated with the use of artificial colouring agents," he added.

In March, Karnataka banned the use of Rhodamine-B, an artificial colouring agent used in gobi manchurian and cotton candy. Vanshika Bhardwaj - Senior Dietician, Marengo Asia Hospitals, Gurugram told IANS that consumption of these artificial food colours can lead to oxidative stress, increase cell apoptosis and affect the brainstem. "Rhodamine-B appears green in powder forms, and it turns vivid fluorescent pink with water. It damages the kidney, and liver and increases the risk of Stomach tumour. Regular consumption of food containing this can damage the cerebellum tissue in the brain and result in functional abnormalities," she added.

Vanshika informed that the colours have been linked to allergic reactions, hyperactivity, and attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) in children, as well as potential carcinogenic effects and organ damage.

"Considering these risks, there is a strong argument for banning artificial food colours to prioritise public health and safety. Stringent regulations and labelling requirements are necessary to inform consumers, allowing them to make informed choices about consuming products with artificial colours," the dietician said.

Raghav Juyal opens up on his transformation into 'ruthless, menacing' Fani

Mumbai, June 25 (IANS) Leaving behind his good boy image, actor-dancer Raghav Juyal has turned grey for his upcoming film 'Kill', where he will portray the "ruthless and menacing" antagonist named Fani, whom he said "nobody saw coming" from him.

Directed by Nikhil Nagesh Bhat, 'Kill' is an action thriller that unfolds during a train journey to the national capital. It features a pair of commandos who face an army of invading bandits led by Raghav's character, Fani. Bhat praised Raghav's performance, describing Fani as a character who brings gore and madness to the entire storyline.

For Raghav, the role marks a "180-degree transformation," which no one saw coming from him.

"I feel nobody saw this coming from me. It's such an evil character, which is so far away from what people have seen of me or know me as a person," Raghav told IANS.

The actor added, "The complete 180-degree transformation is what excited me the most about 'Kill', to deliver something so unexpected. Fani is not your average villain; he is ruthless, menacing to the maximum."

"Because of Raghav's character's unpredictability, a lot of stakes go up. He killed it."

Afghanistan clinch thriller against Bangladesh to enter maiden SF, Aus bow out

T20 World Cup

Kingstown, June 25 (IANS) Afghanistan clinched a low-scoring thriller against Bangladesh by eight runs in a rain-hit Super Eight match on Tuesday to enter semifinal of the T20 World Cup for the first time and in the process, also knocked Australia out of the tournament.

Putting into bat first, Afghanistan posted a below-par score of 115/5 in 20 overs. But in defence, Rashid Khan and Naveen-ul-haq showcased scintillating bowling to successfully defend the total as Bangladesh were bowled out for 105 in 17.5 overs chasing a DLS target of 114 in a match that was reduced to 19 overs due to rain interruptions.

Rashid finished with figures of 4-23 while Naveen claimed 4-26 in a historic win for Afghanistan.

Batting first, Afghanistan

had a slow start as they 27/0 at the conclusion of the Powerplay and easy runs were proving hard to come by. On the very first ball, opener RahmanullahGurbaz was nearly run out of a quick single, only just making it through.

The opening duo Gurbaz and Ibrahim Zadran made a 50-run stand early in the ninth over, becoming the first pair to put together four partnerships of at least 50 in a T20 World Cup.

Despite Bangladesh controlling the run rate, they gave away 13 extras in the first nine overs. Afghanistan were 58/0 at drinks and needed to increase their pace.

The breakthrough wicket came on the fourth ball after the mid-innings break, as Zadran (18 off 29) attempted to float one over long off, but didn't get enough on it. The 12th over was a well-timed maiden, as more nerves kicked in for Afghanistan's batters.

The breakthrough wicket came on the fourth ball of the 11th over when Zadran (18 off 29) failed to clear long off. The 12th over was a well-timed maiden, increasing the pressure on Afghanistan's batters.

AzmatullahOmarzai was removed cheaply, and Gurbaz (43 off 55) fell two balls into the 16th over after his crucial contribution for Afghanistan to post a remotely competitive total.

Bangladesh took two more wickets before the 18th over, leaving Afghanistan at 99/5 with two overs remaining. Rashid Khan's entertaining cameo, including three sixes and frustration over the running between wickets, helped Afghanistan reach 115/5 in 20 overs.

Rain then arrived in St. Vincent, leaving Australia and the competing teams anxiously waiting to see how long it would last.

Defending 115, Gurbaz was back in focus as play finally resumed, but not on a positive note. An awkwardly bouncing ball struck the keeper on the knee and he limped off the ground.

FazalhaqFarooqi removed Bangladesh opener TanzidHasan (0 off 3) in the second over of the chase. And Naveen-ul-Haq struck two huge blows in the third over, including the captain NajmulHossainShanto for 5.

Midway through the fourth over, the rain arrived again. The second delay would exhaust the match's time reserve - any more delay and DLS would come into effect.

Bangladesh clawed their way to 46/3 at the six-over mark, as Litton Das and SoumyaSarkar stitched a partnership across the back half of the powerplay.

Then came Rashid into the attack, who removed SoumyaSarkar (10 off 10). The pressure was again on Bangladesh, who needed to complete the run chase in 12.1 overs to overtake Australia and qualify for the final four.

Back-to-back boundaries from TowhidHridoy in the eighth over swung momentum away from Afghanistan, but Rashid took care of Hridoy's next over, making another twist in the game.

Litton steadied the ship, as drinks approached, finding assistance from reliable veteran Mahmudullah. The pair had their team at 77/5 at drinks.

Rashid then took back-to-back wickets, including Mahmudullah, to end the 11th over and balance the contest. His figures stood at 4-17 off three overs, showcasing his exceptional efforts.

Suddenly, the rain arrived again, as the Afghans were two runs ahead of the DLS par score. But the third delay was only short-lived, as players returned to the field. Bangladesh edged back in front of par in the 13th over, despite their semifinal chances officially coming to an end.

With 20 runs needed from the last four overs, a timely boundary helped Litton to reach a 41-ball half-century. Taskin Ahmed (2 off 9) then chopped on a Naveen-ul-Haq delivery, leaving Bangladesh at 109/9, needing nine runs from eight balls.

Sai Sudarshan returns to Surrey for County Championship fixture

London, June 25 (IANS) Surrey have secured the services of Indian cricketer B. SaiSudharsan for the upcoming round of County Championship fixture against Essex in a highly anticipated top-of-the-table clash. Sudharsan first joined Surrey in 2023 and played a crucial role in helping the club secure the County Championship title away at Hampshire. Sudharsan's recent form has been nothing short of impressive. In the IPL, he had a standout season with the Gujarat Titans, scoring his first century in the competition and accumulating over 500 runs. His consistent performances earned him a debut in the ODI format for India, where he impressed with two half-centuries in three innings against South Africa.

'Something like a dream, proud of this team', says Rashid on sealing SF berth

Kingstown (St Vincent), June 25 (IANS) Afghanistan captain Rashid Khan and his boys have finally done it for the country with a thrilling win against Bangladesh in the Super Eight to enter their first-ever semi-final in the T20 World Cup.

Afghanistan, who defeated New Zealand (group stage) and Australia (Super Eight) in the tournament, have reached the semifinal of the ICC men's tournament for the first time. In the ODI World Cup last year in India, Afghanistan stunned England, Pakistan and Sri Lanka but failed to make it through the semifinals.

Reflecting on the win, Rashid said it is a dream come true moment for him and he is really proud of his players who have scripted history for the team. "It's something like a dream for us as a team being in the semifinal. It's all about the way we have started the tournament. The belief came while we beat New Zealand. It's unbelievable, I don't have any words to describe my feelings.

Back home, everyone is so happy for this big achievement.

"The only guy who put us in the semifinal was Brian Lara and we proved that right.

Before the competition at the welcome party, I told him, 'We won't let you down. We'll make it through and prove you're right.' I am proud of this team," Rashid said in the post-match interaction.

Despite setting a modest total of 115 in 20 overs in a rain-hit clash, Rashid and Naveen-ul-Haq bagged four wickets each to bundle out Bangladesh for 105 in 17.5 after the target was adjusted to 114 in 19 overs due to rain.

Rashid admitted they were 20 runs short of the par score but they gave their 100 per cent on the field and stuck to their plans.

Warner's international career comes to an end after Australia's exit

Kingstown, June 25 (IANS) David Warner's storied 15-year international cricket career came to a quiet close as Australia's elimination from the T20 World Cup was confirmed following Afghanistan's victory over Bangladesh in St Vincent. This marked an understated end for the Australian cricket legend, who had already signaled that this World Cup would be his swan song. Despite hinting at a potential return for next year's Champions Trophy, it appears unlikely, Warner ended his international career in stages, playing his last ODI during Australia's triumphant 2023 campaign in India, his final Test against Pakistan in early 2024 and was set to finish altogether after the 2024 T20 World Cup. His breathtaking 89 from 43 balls on his T20I debut against South Africa told the world of his talent. In 110 matches he scored 3277 runs including a century against Pakistan in 2019-third Aussie to score centuries in all three formats of the game, and 28 half-centuries.

Frank Duckworth, co-inventor of cricket's DLS method, passes away aged 84

New Delhi, June 25 (IANS) Frank Duckworth, one of the pioneering minds behind the Duckworth-Lewis-Stern method, passed away at the age of 84. Duckworth's contribution to the game has left an indelible mark, revolutionizing how rain-affected matches are determined. Duckworth passed away on June 21 in England, according to a report in ESP Ncrinfo. The Duckworth-Lewis method, co-devised by English statisticians Frank Duckworth and Tony Lewis, emerged as a solution to one of cricket's longstanding challenges: setting fair targets in rain-interrupted matches. First implemented in international cricket in 1997, the method was officially adopted by the International Cricket Council (ICC) in 2001, becoming the standard for adjusting targets in truncated games. The method gained further refinement in 2014, when Australian statistician Steven Stern introduced modifications to the system, leading to its current iteration, the DLS method.
